

Camp de Benneville Pines

Thanksgiving Celebration 2010

Thursday, November 25th to

Sunday, November 28

Over the river and through the woods to ... Camp de Benneville Pines! This is a special weekend for families, singles, couples and young adults. Forget about grandmother's place, but don't forget grandma! Bring her and the whole family to Camp de Benneville Pines to enjoy a hassle-free Thanksgiving that will be the best you have ever enjoyed.

Imagine sitting around a blazing fire in the fireplace of the main lodge, surrounded by family and close friends you didn't even know you had. The aromas of roasting turkey, fresh-baked apple pie, homemade bread, and hot apple cider fills the air, mingled with the faint aromatic fragrance of cedar smoke from the fireplace. The sounds of children's laughter fills the air, and you are lulled into a state of contentment and joy because ... you don't have to cook Thanksgiving dinner! Or do anything, really. Because in the kitchen our staff of skilled cooks, headed by our talented chief cook, Marvin Gardenhire, is busily preparing a traditional Thanksgiving feast with all the trimmings, just for you and about 100 other family and close friends.

One special tradition at Thanksgiving camp is the sharing of our talents and skills with others. We call upon participants to lead a program or offer a workshop in order to provide a wide variety of activities throughout the weekend. So please start thinking about what you can share with others to make this weekend even more special. Do you have a good game or art project? Would you lead a hike or yoga class? Can you lead songs at a campfire? Then please lend a generous hand by offering your gift to others this Thanksgiving camp.

Your sharing ensures that there will be plenty of workshops, activities and special events for children and adults, to keep you occupied when you're not eating. Or you can take the opportunity for complete relaxation if you prefer. And the price couldn't be more reasonable -- even more so if you register at our special early-bird prices before September 15.

Remember, all reservations are on a "first come, first served basis," so if you want a room in Craig's Cabin or Cabin 6 or a double bed in Cabins 5, 7 or 8 you should get your reservation in right away!
