

Blessed are the peacemakers for they will be called the children of God - Matthew 5:9 Ways of violence are contrary to the common good, no matter how skillfully used. So we vow to do no harm....

illusion and gains us nothing - Tao Te Ching offices are not with "enemies" but with beings like ourselves. Knowing this, we do not rejoice in victory nor take delight in the downfall of others. Victory is an

Learn how to be a peacemaker in your life and in the world. Each day at camp, we will focus on one of the aspects of being a peacemaker: respect, communication, listening, forgiving and living courageously. By living peacefully and making peace in our homes, at school and with our friends, peace begins with us and spreads like ripples in the water!

Great camp activities during the week include swimming, canoeing, archery, crafts, worship, wink and more!
